Rent Interception

The Condominium Act was amended effective July 1, 2010, to allow an Association to demand that a tenant in possession must pay any future monetary obligation related to the unit, i.e., rent, directly to the Association.

Fla. Stat. & 718.166(11)

(11)(a) If the unit is occupied by a tenant and the unit owner is delinquent in paying any monetary obligation due to the association, the association may make written demand that the tenant pay to the association the subsequent rental payments and continue to make such payments until all monetary obligations of the unit owners related to the unit have been paid in full to the association. The tenant must pay the monetary obligations to the association until the association releases the tenant or the tenant discontinues tenancy in the unit. Pursuant to section 718.116 (11), Florida Statutes, the association demands that you pay your rent directly to the condominium association and continue doing so until the association notifies you otherwise.

This is commonly known as "rent interception", and if the tenant fails to comply, the tenant may be subject to eviction. The statute allows the association to demand that the tenant pay to the association the subsequent rental payments and continue to make such payment until all monetary obligations of the unit owner related to the unit have been paid in full to the association." The rent interception statute provides the association a tool to preclude an owner, who is often in foreclosure, from pocketing the rent obligation while shorting the owner's obligation to the association.

As an owner, you understand that 10% of the rental interception amount is collected as a processing fee for the efforts made. Also, you understand that a $25.00 fee for each notice posted/mailed is also charged to you.

You understand the law that has been stated above and will adhere to such recourse if needed.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Your Board of Directors will welcome the assistance of all the Unit Owners in the enforcement of these regulations, which will aid in the maintenance and management of your Condominium.

These rules and regulations are based upon the experience gained from a number of Florida condominium associations. They should be reviewed from time to time and appropriate amendments made in accordance with the experience of this Association. The definitions contained in the Declaration of Condominium of Floridian Arms are incorporated herein as part of these rules and regulations.

1. COMPLIANCE BY UNIT OWNERS

Unit Owners and occupants shall comply with the foregoing rules and regulations and any and all rules and regulations which may, from time to time, be adopted by the Board of Directors. Failure of a Unit Owner or occupant to comply with the foregoing shall subject the same to legal remedies, including, but not limited to, suits for money damages, injunctive relief or any combination thereof.

Most of these Rules and Regulations have been in effect for years. Regretably, some of them have not been adhered to by owners or renters. Some have not been enforced by previous management companies. As of the date of these Rules and Regulations, all of the Rules and Regulations will be enforced. However, should any parts or numbered paragraphs be found illegal or unenforceable, this shall not relate to any other part(s).

The only paragraphs containing substantial factual changes or whose substance are not required by law are 2b, 2c, 4, 5, 9, 12, 16, 20, 21, 29, 32, 33, 35A, 37

2. OCCUPANCY AND USE RESTRICTIONS

A. Units may be used only as residential dwellings and for no other purpose. No business, profession or trade of any type shall be conducted on any portion of the Condominium Property. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit ownership of a Unit by a corporation, domestic or foreign, provided that the residential nature of the Condominium is not disturbed.

B. A Unit owned by an individual(s), corporation, partnership, trust or other fiduciary may only be occupied by the following persons, and such persons' families: (i) the individual Unit Owner(s), (ii) an officer, director, stockholder, employee or designee of such corporation, (iii) a partner, employee or designee of such partnership, (iv) the fiduciary or beneficiary of such fiduciary. In no event shall occupancy (except for temporary occupancy by visiting guests) exceed two (2) persons per bedroom. The Board of Directors shall have the power to authorize occupancy of a Unit by persons in addition to those set forth above.

C. As used herein, "family" or words of similar import shall be deemed to include a spouse, children, parents, brothers, sisters, grandchildren and other persons permanently cohabiting the Unit as or together with the Owner or permitted occupant thereof. As used herein, "guest" or words of similar import shall include only those persons who have a principal residence other than the Unit. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, and except as otherwise provided in Rule 2, a person(s) occupying a Unit for more than one (1) month without the Unit Owner or a member of his family being present shall not be deemed a guest but, rather, shall be deemed a lessee for purposes of these Rules and Regulations (regardless of whether a lease exists or rent is paid) and shall be subject to the provisions of these Rules and Regulations which apply. The purpose of this section is to prohibit the circumvention of the provisions and intent of these Rules and Regulations and the Board of Directors shall enforce, and the Unit Owners comply with, same with due regard for such purpose.

3. RULES AND REGULATIONS ENFORCEMENT

Violations should be reported in writing, to the Board of Directors of the Association.

Violations will be called to the attention of the violating Unit Owner by the Board or condominium attorney.

Disagreements concerning violations will be presented to, and be judged by, the Board of Directors, which will take appropriate action.

Unit Owners are responsible for compliance by their family members, guests, invitees, employees and lessees with these rules and regulations. This includes children.

For clarity's sake, the following rules or regulations are listed in alphabetical order. However, you may not assume that one subject matter is mentioned in only one section. You must read all of the Rules and Regulations. If you can not read English, it is your responsibility to have these Rules and Regulations interpreted.

To facilitate entry in the event of any such emergency, the Unit Owner of each Unit, if required by the Association, shall deposit a key to such Unit, under the control of the Association.

B. If a Unit Owner wants additional locks as additional security, said Unit Owner shall deposit with the manager a duplicate key for each such additional lock for use in emergencies.
